MEP

Mechanical, electrical, and plumbing (MEP) refers to aspects of building design and construction.

LUXURY ANTONOVICH DESIGN provides MEP, which is very important for design decision-making, accurate documentation, performance and cost-estimation, construction planning, managing and operating the resulting facility.

We oversee and design the heating, ventilation and air conditioning (HVAC), plumbing, and rain gutter systems. Plumbing designers include design specifications for simple active fire protection systems, for more complicated projects, fire protection engineers are often separately retained. Our electrical engineers are responsible for the building's power distribution, telecommunication, fire alarm, signalization, lightning protection and control systems, as well as lighting systems.

Computer-aided design had some advantages, in some instances including 3D modeling. Building information modeling provides holistic design and parametric change management of the MEP design.
